

Patricia Ann Macer

January 11, 1949 - November 7, 2023

Patricia Ann Macer of Chestertown, MD passed away on November 7, 2023 at the University of Maryland Shore Medical Center of Chestertown. She was 74 years old.

She was born in Baltimore, MD on January 11, 1949 to the late George and Beatrice Macer. She grew up in Rock Hall, MD and attended Garnett High School.

Her greatest joy in life was her family. She loved to babysit her nieces and nephews, and often took on a caretaker role for her brothers and sisters when she could. She cared about her friends and family deeply, collecting photos of her loved ones to keep with her. She always made sure to end a phone call with "I love you, God loves you".

Patricia was a devoted member of the Potter's House Ministries. She was a faithful woman who loved attending church every Sunday until she was physically unable in later years. Even when she couldn't attend, she was faithful in her love of Jesus and especially loved hymns and gospel music. She was known to sing and shout at church, and often listened to the Gospel Greats at home. Her favorite song was "Can't Nobody Do Me Like Jesus". In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, George Macer, Jr. and Lewis Macer, as well as two nephews, Oliver Felton and George Macer III.

She is survived by her sisters: Shirley Scott of Rock Hall, Jean Macer of Chestertown, and Dorothy Macer of Chestertown; nieces, Juanita Demby and Cindy Felton; nephews, Roosevelt Felton and Gerome Macer; a great-niece and great-nephew; as well as a host of great-great-nieces and nephews. Services will be held on Saturday, November 18 at 11:00 am at Potter's House in Fairlee, with a viewing to be held two hours prior from 9:00 am to 11:00 am. Interment to follow in Aaron's Chapel Cemetery.
