

Patricia Carol Major

February 11, 1944 - November 26, 2024

Patricia Carol Major (nee Andrews), passed away peacefully on November 26, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Born on February 11, 1944, in Baltimore, MD, Pat grew up in Arnold, where she graduated from Severna Park High School. She was the beloved wife of Rodney Major, with whom she shared nearly 60 years of love and devotion.

Pat was a devoted mother to her two daughters, Beth Redmon and Robyn Major, and a cherished grandmother to her grandson, Cole Redmon. She was the dear sister of Elizabeth "Lettie" DeProspero, Herbert "Bud" Andrews, and the late Mildred "Mickey" Dutrow and Betty Miklasz. Pat also leaves behind many loving nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who will miss her deeply.

Pat's career began at the National Security Agency (NSA), where she would eventually retire after a brief time at Anne Arundel Hospital. It was at NSA, however, that Pat met Rodney, the love of her life. They enjoyed a life full of shared memories, with particular fondness for their numerous day trips to the beach and other locales; these trips always forging new memories and strengthening their bond.

Outside of her professional life, Pat was a compassionate soul who loved baking, reading, and volunteering at the library as a Story Time Reader at local children's daycare. She also found joy in knitting, creating beautiful hats and blankets for newborns at the hospital. Her sense of community was evident as she served as treasurer for her neighborhood association, Tower Gardens.

Pat's life was defined by her kindness, dedication to family, and a heart full of love for those around her. She will be deeply missed but forever remembered by all who knew her.

A memorial service celebrating Pat's life will be held at 11AM on Wednesday, December 11 at Kent Island United Methodist Church, with gathering beginning at 10AM. Donations in Pat's memory may be made to Compass Hospice or the American Cancer Society.
