

Patricia Jane Molloy

August 17, 1946 - March 29, 2016

Patricia Jane Molloy of Chestertown, MD, died peacefully March 29 at the University of Maryland-Baltimore Shock/Trauma Center. She had been in the Center for several weeks following a serious car accident.

Patricia was born August 17, 1946 ,in Brooklyn, NY, first child of John and Marie Molloy. She was a graduate of the Dominican Academy, Skidmore College, and Georgetown University. Most of her career was spent with General Motors, either in extensive traveling or at home in Detroit and Grosse Pointe, MI.

In 1999, she and her husband William “Bill” Quigley retired and moved to Chestertown.

Patricia had four loves, her family, her friends, classic films, and good literature. She particularly found great joy in teaching a film course for many years sponsored by Washington College Academy of Lifelong Learning and was known to many in Chestertown as the “Movie Lady,” a sobriquet that always made her smile.

She is survived by her sister and brother-in-law, Eileen and John Shepard, of Greenfield Center, NY; her niece, Kate Shepard of College Park MD; and her nephew, Jonathan Shepard of Saratoga Springs, NY.

Her husband, William (Bill) Quigley; her father, John F. Molloy; her mother, Marie M. Molloy; and her brother, John F. Molloy Jr., predeceased her.

A memorial service is being planned for later in the spring. The family requests no flowers. Patricia would have appreciated any contribution to Chester River Home Care and Hospice, 6602 Church Hill Road, Chestertown, MD or the Humane Society of Kent County.

“ I knew Patricia when she lived in Flint, Michigan. She was a comrade in arms and a good critic of literature. Her opinons were firm. I remember when she bought a mink jacket and hesitated to keep it. I said absolutely she should keep it! She is missed. Mary Lib Schultz. melbe47@gmail.com.

“ Patricia and I were roommates while attending Georgetown University. I also attended Skidmore, but a few years earlier. We had the best of times, laughing, partying with our professors and talking about Dr. Ayers, our Chaucer professor, constantly until we were demanded to "shut up," especially by her sister Eileen. Patricia was generous with her time and very thoughtful. She persuaded me to use my given name of Elizabeth or Liz, and drop the '40's Betty. It stuck! My warmest wishes to her family and friends. “ Patricia was a wonderful person. She hosted many parties at her lovely home and I was fortunate to be called upon to serve and tend bar. I considered her a good friend and was always happy to see her and chat with her when we crossed paths. She was a true giver and always wanting to make sure that everyone else was happy. I will miss her much. Rest in peace dear soul.
