“ I live right up the street and I am so shocked that I did not even know Pat was ill and passed away until Friday February 11 and I am in total shock. I totally missed her funeral and everything and would had been there had I known. She was the sweetest and most happy person ever. We spent a lot of time talking on Park Lane when she would wheel around during the spring and summer. I was able to take care of her Yorkie a few times in the past, when she was unable. I so wish I could have said, "Bye for now and I will see you heaven!" We had many talks about our Savior, the Lord Jesus. This lady carried a beautiful soul and her smile was so contagious. Rest in Love, Pat. oxox

“ The last 4 years Pam and I would stop by to see Pat either coming or going to the Ocean for car week the last visit was so wonderful Pat was so happy she would talk about the ORIOLES, said proudly that she watched every Game and that she knew all the players by numbers and the way they moved She was smiling ear to ear talking about her Orioles. To me that was Awesome part of the trip last yr and a memory that I will cherish. Rest in Peace Pat.
