

Patricia Ruth Sebera

September 5, 2000

Patricia Ruth Sebera (nee Juergens) wife, mother and registered nurse, died peacefully on September 5, 2000. She was 72 years old.

She was the daughter of the late Iva Rose Culbert, and the late Edwin Columbus Juergens, of Chicago. She grew up in Chicago, graduating from Foreman High School in 1946, and the Augustana Hospital School of Nursing in 1949.

After marriage to Donald Keith Sebera in 1950, she chose to both raise a family and continue her nursing career. She was a dedicated Registered Nurse for 48 years, working in a variety of settings and specializing in Geriatric Care. She lived in Middletown CT; Cooperstown, NY; Ottawa, Canada; and Bridgeton, NJ.

Mrs. Sebera enjoyed dancing, sitting in gardens, as well as collecting art and antiques. She was an avid reader. She loved to travel and explore, and was especially fond of the Thames River in London, portrayed frequently by her favorite artist, James McNeill Whistler. She said that in another life she was a sailor. Mrs. Sebera was known for her wit, wisdom, fortitude of convictions, and sense of fun. She has been an ardent member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church for 60 years. Mrs. Sebera has traveled on to join her parents and brother the late Theodore Columbus Juergens.

Her sister, Mary Irene Bean lives in Chicago, IL. She is survived by Donald Sebera; her children: Robert, Mary, Laura, and Diana Sebera; and six grandchildren, Stephen, Anna, Matthew, Isabel, Phillip and Brendon. We wish her bon voyage, and will miss her dearly.

There will be a funeral Service at Fellows, Helfenenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Chestertown, MD, on Thursday September 7, 2000 ,at 7:30 P.M. Relatives and friends may call at the funeral home from 6:00 until 7:30 on Thursday. There will be an open burial at Graceland Cemetery in Chicago, IL, on Saturday September 9, 2000, at 2:00 P.M. in the Chapel.
