

Patricia W. Wroten

August 31, 2003

Patricia White Wroten passed away on Sunday, August 31, 2003 in Easton, MD.

She was born March 5, 1921 to Rollins and Minnie Glover White in New York City. They resided in Westbury, Long Island until 1933 when they moved to Cambridge, MD. After graduating from Cambridge High School, she attended Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College), graduating in 1942 with a Bachelor of Science degree in dietetics. She married Raymond Stewart Marshall who was in the Air Corp and died in North Africa during World War II, leaving her with a young daughter Carol Marshall Turner.

In August 1946, she married William H. Wroten, Jr. They were married 57 years and have two children, Jan W. Tingle and Thomas W. Wroten, both of Cape Coral, Florida.

She studied piano and attended piano workshops at Peabody, University of Maryland, and Princeton. She spent many years teaching piano in Salisbury and Cambridge until her retirement from teaching in 1998.

She was extremely talented in crafts and sewing; her slipcovers found their way into many Salisbury homes. She was a wonderful homemaker and cook and enjoyed entertaining family and friends in a home filled with examples of her talents.

She leaves to cherish her memory as a loyal wife, precious mother and cherished grandmother, her husband Bill, her three children Carol, Jan and Tom; her eleven grandchildren, Theresa and Asher Tingle, Joy Rowan, Lorien and Sara Wroten, Marshall, Patricia, Dorine, Elisabeth and Judith Geeslin, and Trace Hall; and her four great grandchildren David and Bethany Geeslin and Cobi and Logan Tingle.

Services will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to the charity of choice.

Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, MD.
