

Patsy R. Bremer

November 30, 1919 - May 2, 2013

Patsy Raskob Bremer died peacefully at the age of 93 in Easton, MD, on May 2, 2013. She was born on November 30, 1919, at "Archmere" in Claymont, DE. She was one of thirteen children born to John J. and Helena S. Raskob.

When she was young, the family relocated to Pioneer Point Farm in Centreville, MD. It was there that Patsy developed her passion for sailing. In 1932 at the age of 12, she was the first female and youngest person to skipper a boat in the International Star Class Racing Association. She sailed in the 1932 World's Championship in Southport, CT, and the 1933 Worlds in Long Beach, CA. She continued to race her boat, Ripple, into the 1940's.

She attended the San Francisco College for Women. It was there that she met her future husband, M. Stephen Bremer. Together they moved to Easton and she called Peachblossom Creek her home for over 60 years. She proudly served as President and member of the Raskob Foundation for Catholic Activities, member of the Bill Raskob Foundation, on the Board of Loyola University, Baltimore, MD, Memorial Hospital at Easton, MD and the Maryland Catholic Conference. She spent her life doing all she could to help others.

She was predeceased by her husband, M. Stephen Bremer and an infant son, Stephen Patrick. She is survived by her sister, Mary Louise (Boo) Duffy; her children, William Bremer (Marti), Mary Howie, Anne Staley (Carl) and Robert Bremer (Stephany); 10 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; four generations of nieces and nephews; and her ever-devoted friend, Marcella Thomas.

Friends may call Friday, May 10, from 6 – 8 p.m., where prayers will be offered at 7:45 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home P.A., 200 S. Harrison St. in Easton.

A Funeral Liturgy will be celebrated on Saturday, May 11, at 10 a.m. at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, 7906 Ocean Gateway, Easton, MD 21601. Burial will be at St. Peter the Apostle Church Cemetery, Queenstown, MD.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in her name to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Dr., Easton MD 21601.

“ Expressing deep and heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. Patsy R. Bremer. Sharing four generations with your loved one is truly a blessing. There comes a time soon when Gods original purpose for mankind will be fulfilled. The kingdom at Matthew 6:10 that we pray for daily will bring back that original purpose. May you all continue to cherish the memories you had with her.
