I'm sorry to hear of Pauls passing,there were a bunch of us that were good friends for years. Me and Paul and friends would go fishing and crabbing all the time. His Dad showed us how to steam crabs.I visited him once or twice when he moved to the eastern shore.He will be missed,I will let other friends know of his passing

“ Paul Allen Asmussen, age 71, born January 26, 1954, sadly passed away at Johns Hopkins Medical Center's on April 8, 2025. Raised in Riverdale, he resided in Annapolis, Shady Side, and finally Chestertown, MD.

Paul enjoyed playing horseshoes, fishing, and crabbing, with a particular fondness for steamed crabs and beer. He was an aficionado of muscle cars and owned a distinctive hot rod green Maverick.

Professionally, Paul worked as a track maintenance worker for Chessie Railroad before retiring from Pepco.

He is survived by his partner Quyen Vu, children, Holly Marin (Daniel), Ryan Asmussen, and Windy Asmussen; brother, Dennis Asmussen Sr.; nephew, Dennis Asmussen Jr.; six grandchildren, Kali, Kinsely, and Kohen Marin, Hailey, Brantley, and Maci Asmussen; and nieces, Jeannie Brauning and Kristen Asmussen. Predeceased by Ruth and Robert Asmussen, brother Bobby Asmussen, nephew Bobby Asmussen Jr., and nieces Katie and Josie Asmussen.
