“ To the entire Doeler and McDonald families, my life has been forever changed by our friendship and love over the years. Trying to come up with one memory of Paul is difficult for me. We grew up together, worked, hunted, fished, crabbed and raised our children together. And we partied a little too. But what keeps popping into my head is all the vacations we were able to go on over the years. From the time the kids were young and having to carry everything over 2 dunes in Avon to the last trip in Rodanthe when the power went out and we were forced to leave, and every trip in between, the memories are endless. What is really important and what I will never forget about Paul is that as a person he never changed during his battle with cancer. I got to spend a lot of time with Paul over the last 4 years although now it seems like it wasn't enough time. He kept his sense of humor, he kept his opinion which was always strong, he kept his dignity, and he kept his love for his family and friends. I know I'm not alone in saying this but there will be a void in my life without Paul in it. What will be forever in my mind though is after Paul passed and about a half hour went by I watched a very noticeable smile come across his face. It was a smile that was genuine and didn't leave his face, and I knew then he was at peace and he is ok.

“ I'm so sorry to know of Paul's passing. He was an incredibly funny guy with a magnetic personality! His wedding to Lynn went down in the books as the best ever!! Him hopping around in a cast on his leg was epic. I remember having kind of a crush on him as a young gal. You will be missed by so many but your spirit will stay with us through Lynn, Hannah and Jack. Peace be with you all. Sending all my Love. ~~ xo Chrissy

“ Lynne and I became friends as teachers at K.I.E.S. I met her husband, taught her daughter Hannah and even visited their home on a few occasions. However, her family had never seen nor met my family. Paul would always question if I was really married because he had never seen nor met my husband. One night while we were attending a school faculty party, my husband had gotten off work late and dropped something off at my car. I ran into the party to tell Paul that he does exist there he is. In the darkness all Paul saw was and shadow and he turned to me and said "Oh now your married to a ghost." This was a running joke between us. Paul did finally meet my husband, a self-employed concrete finisher, They did business together, became friends and shared many laughs. We will miss you Paul Doeler, but we will reminisce about you often so that you will always have a place in our heart. To Lynne and the children we love you and are just a phone call away if you need us. Your Friends,
The Cornish Family

“ Dearest Lynne, Hannah and Jack,

Marcus and I are sending our prayers and holding you all close in our hearts. We are here for you on your new journey in life. Your faith will help you through your pain. No more suffering for Paul, he is in the arms of Jesus. I'm sure our angel son, Marcus, was watching for Paul as he entered his new heavenly home and saying, Paul it's beautiful here in heaven no more suffering.

*We love you Lynne, Hannah and Jack.
