

Paul F. Hubbard

November 10, 1950 - March 9, 2023

Born November 10, 1950, Paul Forwood Hubbard died peacefully in his sleep at Our Abode Veterans Home on March 9, 2023.

Paul is survived by two older brothers, Peter of Berkeley, CA, and Jim of Sarasota, FL; and two nieces, Jeanie Holtz of Cambridge, MD, and Debbie Daniels, Easton, MD.

Paul was born in Easton and had an idyllic childhood, fishing and crabbing in the Tred Avon River and playing and exploring in its tidal marshes.

Graduating from Easton High School, Paul joined the Air Force in which he was trained to be a non-destructive metal fatigue tester. He served his enlistment analyzing the strength and integrity of aircraft components.

A short career with Black and Decker as a Quality Control Inspector followed his discharge from the Air Force. Paul resided at several different VA homes in northeastern MD.

There is no funeral service planned.
