

Paul Fogle Mickey Sr.

January 18, 2001

Paul Fogle Mickey, Sr., 86, a longtime Washington lawyer, died at his home in Easton on January 18, 2001 from complications related to Parkinson's Disease. Born on September 3, 1914 in Winston-Salem, NC, he was the son of the late Edward T. and Ada Fogle Mickey.

He received both his AB and LLB from the University of North Carolina. From 1937 to 1939, he worked as Assistant to the Attorney General of North Carolina. He came to Washington in 1939 and spent seven years as a Special Attorney with the Tax Division in the Department of Justice, interrupted in 1945 by service in the Office of Military Government in Berlin. He joined Steptoe & Johnson in 1947 and worked there for 31 years until his retirement in 1978. He served several years as the firm's Managing Partner and specialized in tax, administrative, and international trade law, and worked during the latter part of his career on cases involving the American watch industry, the building of the Trans-Alaska Pipeline, and the importation of foreign steel.

Mr. Mickey was a member of the Metropolitan Club and the Chevy Chase Club, where he served as Vice-President of the Board. In Easton, he was a member of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club, the Talbot Country Club, and served on the board of the Historical Society of Talbot County. Mr. Mickey and his wife of 57 years, the former Margaret Stanley, enjoyed hunting, fishing, and boating, and lived for two years in the Outer Banks of North Carolina before moving to Easton, MD to live on the Tred Avon River.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three children, Margo King-Steiner of Boulder, CO, Paul F. Mickey, Jr. of Washington, D.C., and Frank T. Mickey of Bethesda, MD; a brother, Joseph H. Mickey of Winston-Salem, NC; a sister, Mary Louise Simon of New York City, NY; and five grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held at Christ Church, 111 South Harrison Street, Easton, MD on Saturday, January 27, 2001 at 11:00 AM.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Christ Church General Memorial Fund, or the YMCA of Talbot County, 202 Peachblossom Road, Easton, MD 21601
