

Pauline Mae Henderson

September 8, 1932 - April 29, 2012

Pauline Mae Henderson from Church Hill, MD, died Sunday, April 29, 2012, at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was 79.

Born September 8, 1932, in Altoona, PA, she was the daughter of the late Charles and Marcella Trostle Tate.

Her greatest joy in life was her family and her cats. She enjoyed traveling, cooking, and watching her favorite daytime shows Judge Judy and Dr. Phil. She was a member of "Woman of the Moose" Glen Burnie, MD, Chapter 1176.

Pauline is survived by her four children, Deborah Ferris and her husband, Roy from Baltimore, Karen Nelson and her husband, Edgar Thomas from Beaufort, NC, Sandra Smith and her husband, Charles of Rosedale, MD, and Melvin Henderson, III, and his wife, Rebecca of Queenstown, MD; two brothers, Charles Tate of Glen Burnie and William Tate of Baltimore; eight grandchildren, Kelly Parrish, Kevin Aro, Kristina Lenes, Michael Smith, Crystal Henderson, Tammy Henderson, Amy Henderson, and Amanda Baker; six great grandchildren, Brittany Crispens, Ashley Parrish, Autumn Crispens, Alex Butler, Matty Butler and Icelynn Baker; one great-great-grandchild, Jesse Johnson; two cats, Carly, Missy and the late, Sammy. She was predeceased in death by her two husbands, the late Melvin Henderson, Jr., and Carl Pully.

Burial will be in Glen Haven Memorial Park in Glen Burnie at a later date.

Contributions may be made in her memory to Hospice of Queen Anne's Inc.,
255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617.

Tribute Wall

“ Pauline Mae Henderson

---

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Pauline Mae Henderson

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Pauline Mae Henderson

---

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM