

Pauline Louise Shockley

October 5, 1935 - August 5, 2022

Pauline Louise Shockley passed away at home on August 5, 2022. She was 86.

Born October 5, 1935, in Taylors Bridge, DE, she was the daughter of the late Eugene Franklin and Martha Foraker Shockley. She lived in Taylors Bridge all her life and went to the one room schoolhouse which is now the Taylors Bridge Community Center.

She retired from Home Beneficial Life Insurance Co. in Dover in 1997 after 45 years. A lifelong member of Friendship United Methodist Church, she was Treasurer for many years.

Her family was her greatest joy. She is survived by nieces Faren Elliott Jeeter (Ed) and Faith Elliott Rossing of Ingleside, MD, and Kellie Walters (Sam) of Viola, DE.; great-niece Ashley Winterstein (Wes) of Sudlersville, MD, and Ashley Jeeter of Culpeper, VA; great-nephews Caleb Rossing (Jaime Fowler) of Ingleside, Cole Elliott (JoAnna Larrimore) of Houston, DE, Eugene Elliott Jr (Kayli Giles) of Barclay, MD, and Dustin Elliott (Kelsey Graef) of Viola; great-great-nieces June and Claire Winterstein, Londyn Smoot, and Ali and Lily Elliott; and great-great nephews Junior Wesley and Clarence Luke Winterstein and Easton Kase.

She was predeceased by her sisters Elsie Mae Shockley and Virginia S. Elliott Green; her husbands Clifton Elliott, Jr. and Allan Green; and her nephews Eugene C Elliott, Sr., and Pete Rossing.

She was a faithful, generous, giving and hard-working person and enjoyed her Taylors Bridge home and friendships.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date for her and Elsie. Memorial donations may be made to Friendship United Methodist Church, 169 Paddock Rd, Townsend, DE 19734 or to Taylors Bridge Community Center, 121 Fleming Landing Rd, Townsend, DE 19734.
