“ To: Paul Sterling,

You probably do not remember me, but I am Your Aunt Shirley and I live in Louisiana. I have met you a few times in your life. I just know this much, You, My dear one, was the apple of your mother's eye. When ever we would talk on the phone she always spoke so highly of you. I even remember when each of your children were born. Pauline was a very proud Grandmother. I know she will be greatly missed by YOU and your beautiful family. God Bless YOU and your whole family. My heart goes out to you, Paul.

“ There are so many memories I have with Pauline and trying to think of the best one makes this even harder and brings tears to my eyes. One of my first memories is when we made a care package for Paul when he went to boot camp. Together we made all of his favorite cookies and included his favor candies. The best memory I have of Pauline is when her grand babies were born. She was there the minute they were born and loved them so much. There's almost nothing she wouldn't do for them.
