

Pauline E. Middleton

February 13, 2003

Pauline Elizabeth Middleton of Centreville died at the Corsica Hills Nursing Center, Centreville, on Thursday, Feb. 13, 2003. She was 96.

Born September 3, 1906 in Church Hill, she was the daughter of the late Thomas Anthony and Margaret Ullman Minch. She attended school in Church Hill. In 1923, she married Wilmer L. Middleton of Centreville. He preceded her in death on September 21, 1982. They resided in Centreville where she worked for The Perfect Garment Co. as a seamstress. She retired in 1972.

She was a member of Our Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church in Centreville and the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. In the 1940s and early 1950s, she was a midwife assisting Dr. W.H. Fisher in the delivery of babies in and around Centreville. When Dr. Fisher was not available for a delivery, she was called on. She also was a caretaker for the sick and dying.

She was fond of sewing, gardening and loved flowers. She will be remembered by her family and friends for her wonderful sense of humor.

Mrs. Middleton is survived by a daughter, Pauline Brown (Pie) and her husband Bob Brown of Sparks; a son, James Thomas Middleton of Georgetown, DE; a sister Margaret Hunter of Chestertown, MD; nine grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. She was pre-deceased by two sons, David W. Middleton, who died in 1996, William Fisher Middleton, who died in 1999; and a grandson, James Bardy Middleton, who died in 1985. She also was pre-deceased by four sisters, Georgianna Kimble, Anna C. Massey, Frances Breen, Eva Minch and two brothers, John Gilbert Minch and Thomas Minch.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 Thursday, February 20, at Our Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church, Centreville. Interment will be in Church Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., in Centreville from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, February 19, 2003.
