“ Auntie I know you are in heaven with your parents, sisters and brothers having a real reunion. I will miss you very much. I loved the talks we used to have about the family. I remember staying with you for a visit and we stayed up almost all night talking and looking at the picture albums. You had an album for every one of your children and even had pictures of me in one. I love you and my heart aches, but I know God knows best. I will see you again and then we can visit each other in our mansions. Tell everyone I said hi.
