

Pearl Jones

September 7, 1925 - December 25, 2012

Pearl Jones of Arlington, VA, formerly of Queenstown, MD, died at home surrounded by her family Tuesday December 25, 2012. She was 87.

Born on September 7, 1925, on Kent Island, MD, she was the daughter of the late Ollie and Carrie Lewis. Pearl grew up on Kent Island and attended school in Chester and Stevensville. She began working at a young age helping her family farm.

On August 18, 1940 she married Chester Leonard Jones who was a local waterman. They would have six children, and she was a homemaker, assisting her husband with his business. Pearl made eel pots and gloves for many of the local waterman over the years which she enjoyed with a passion. She worked at the Chesapeake Motel in Stevensville and later for the Perfect Garment Factor in Grasonville until it closed. She then found her calling when she worked for Corsica Hills Assisted Living Center in Centreville as a nursing aide for over 20 years and later as a nurse aide with Home Call until 1999. She enjoyed playing cards, watching wrestling, helping others, and spending time with her family.

She is survived by a daughter, Doris Ethel Jones of Arlington, VA; son, Richard E. Jones of Queenstown, MD; daughter, Ethlyn Jones Quass of Arlington, VA, and daughter Anna E. Jones of Easton, MD; 19 grandchildren;

10 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. She was predeceased by her husband, Chester Leonard Jones (1982); sons, Charles "Jake" Jones (2012) and Chester "Little Man" Jones (2005); and all her siblings.

A funeral service will be held 2 p.m. on Saturday December 29, 2012, at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, PA 106 Shamrock Road Chester, MD 21619, where family and friends may visit one hour before. Interment will follow in St. Peter's Cemetery in Queenstown, MD.

Ethyl, Doris and families, After a long struggle your mother has at peace with the Lord and you have the comfort of knowing that you did all that you could for her in those final months. May she rest in peace.
