“ Penny,

It took me awhile to be able to share feelings. Oh, the memories we shared. There are so many. Staying with you in Reistertown and the walks we used to go on, scaring Toni in the haunted house, helping Grandmom get ready for the Daisy meetings, and running that Kirby vacuum. I think that was where I first learned about muscles, lol. Hanging out under the carport listening to music and acting like we were famous. I can say you are honestly the one who taught me to be "bad and sneaky" and I will always love you for that. Grandmom and Grandpop always let us get away with everything. I think you developed that part of me. When you moved further into town then we used to go to Dairy Queen and meet up with all your friends. Our trip to Maine to see Uncle Mac and we each had to have new hiphugger bellbottoms. Oh my gosh and sing... we really believed we would be rich and famous for that. And as Toni already mentioned... the farm in Preston and walking up to the store. I've been to the farm a couple of times since then just to look at the house. I love you Penny. Sing loud now that you are pain free.

“ My dear baby sister Penny,

You tended to march to the beat of a different drummer. Sometimes it was hard for us to get along with each other but our love for each other always ran deep! Thank you for asking me and Jim many years ago to raise your 2 girls when you realized you couldn't. They are beautiful, wonderful women with children of their own. You loved those grandchildren very much as well as your girls. We grew much closer as years went by. Our last visit you hugged me so tight and told me you didn't want to let go of me. We said "I love you" to each other. I am so glad we did that. Your passing was sudden and such a shock to all. I am so glad that all your pain is gone forever! I know you will sing every day with the angels! May God bless your eternal soul! I love you so much and miss you always!
Love forever, Wanda

“ Penny...the first word that comes to mind is spitfire....but for anyone who got past that found a heart of love...life was always a battle for you...but God blessed you with 2 beautiful girls . I have so many fun memories of you as we practically grew up together...was hard for me to think of you as my aunt...I remember the haunted house you made me go thru....the summers at bible school singing to the top of our lungs on that big blue bus....Lindy running face first into the truck with oreo cookies in her mouth....working on that farm and hitchhiking into town to spend our money on hip huggers and icecream....aww the days....I miss your contagious laugh and hearing you sing...the. time you got to spend with your mom was precious and also with Syliva living so close....rest in peace dear Penny....I love you.

“ Dear Penny,
I still can't believe you are gone. It still seems so unreal. I am going to miss you so much. I will miss your laughter and your sunny ways. Love you!!

Bill I am so sorry for your loss, and for Sylvia and Amanda also. Know that we love you so much and will be there for you.

“ Dearest Penny,
I'm really going to miss you. The last time we saw each other you embraced me in tears because you loved me and missed me. Whenever I think of you that will be the memory I hold dear to my heart. I enjoyed our talks on messenger. You always showed others love no matter what and you will be remembered for that quality. RIP my younger than me Aunt Penny. Soar with the angels. <3 <3 <3 <3 ;(

“ Mom Penny I am going to miss having you there to talk to anytime I needed somebody to talk to you were there no matter what time of day or nite it was you would sit and listen. I am going to miss the fun times we had just sitting and watching tv and talking or hanging out on the porch talking. Every time I smell a rose now I am going to think of you because you loved roses and had beautiful ones come out every yr in front of the house. R.I.P Penny we will miss you I still can't believe you are gone
