

Peter Scott Clempner

June 5, 2003

Peter Scott Clempner, 55, a world class sailor and resident of Annapolis, MD, since 1968, died June 5, 2003, at Anne Arundel Medical Center following a short illness.

Mr. Clempner was born December 27, 1947, and raised in New York City. He had a lifelong love of the sea, winning many races as a youth.

Early in his career, he converted Ted Turner's boat Tenacious into an ocean racer which he skippered to several victories.

He is best remembered in this area as skipper of Al VanMeter's Running Tide which won the Bermuda Cup in 1976.

He also skippered Alibi, establishing it as one of the top 10 boats on the Bay. He raced Leading Edge and Air Mail and in 2000 he sailed L"Outrage to win the Key West Race.

Surviving are his wife, Drue Slaughter Clempner, and two children, Scott and Ashley Clempner of the home.

A celebration of his life will be held at 4:00 PM Thursday, June 12, 2003, at St. Anne's Episcopal Church, Church Circle, Annapolis. The family is in the process of establishing a scholarship fund in his name.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral home, P.A., Easton, MD.
