

Peter Clayton Tucker

June 27, 2021

Peter Clayton Tucker, born June 9, 1952, in Albuquerque, NM, died June 27, 2021, in Easton, Maryland.

His only immediate survivor is his sister, Nancy M. Tucker. He was predeceased by his mother, Mildred V. Tucker, his father, Charles L. Tucker, and his brother, Paul C. Tucker. He also leaves his cousins Susan Snook and Paul Vitz, his aunt Shirley Vitz, and many, many friends, both locally and in other places.

Peter grew up in an Air Force family, moving from Albuquerque, where he was born, then to Montgomery, AL; to RAF Sculthorpe, England, and finally to Alexandria, VA, where his father was stationed at the Pentagon. He gained his love for antiques from his mother, and of being on the water while learning to sail a Sunfish at the Washington Sailing Marina in Alexandria. He was a talented woodworker at Mount Vernon High School.

Following a stint at Paul Smith's College in NY, he became an antique dealer in Maine, later moving to Lyons, CO, where he continued dealing in antiques. He also trained as an auctioneer.

Peter liked nothing better than dachshunds, telling a good story or getting a big bargain. Despite the baseball bat and the machete he kept by his front door, Peter loved the Eastern Shore, where he lived for about 20 years.

Some of his ashes will be scattered in the Choptank River by his friends from the Thursday morning breakfast group in Easton. The remainder of his ashes will go to his parents' shared grave in Arlington National Cemetery, where his brother Paul's ashes were also scattered. There will be no formal memorial service.

In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to make a contribution to the American Heart Association.

“ Peter became a “new friend “ , after helping my mother sell my father’s beautiful Mercedes. He was such a kind man , most helpful , had great connections and such a wonderful storyteller when he and my mom talked of their travels and friends. We will miss him and his bright light he added to the world .

“ We shall miss Peter greatly- a man of endless curiosity and intellect which we of the breakfast bunch only saw a small part of. An understated man who usually listened more than he spoke- which made him an essential part of our conversations. bon journee.
