

Philip Tilghman Paca Logan

July 22, 2001 - July 11, 2021

Tilghman Logan passed away peacefully during the early morning hours of Sunday July 11, at his home in Oxford, MD. H was loved and admired by all who knew him, Tilghman was a keen sailor, gardener, artist, and advocate for people with disabilities. He sang in the choir at The Waters United Methodist Church, founded in 1883 to serve persons of African descent living on the Oxford Neck. Many of the parishioners represent Founding Black Families of Maryland.

Tilghman was also a favorite at The Tred Avon Yacht Club where he worked with his father to champion accessible sailing. A member for fifteen years, he took part in their Focus on Sailing Program, and competed in the Robbie Pierce regattas in New York representing The Tred Avon Yacht Club.

Tilghman was known for his cart, often overflowing with garden clippings, as he worked on Mill Street. Greeted by all, he used to exclaim, “How do they all know me?”

Tilghman graduated from New York City’s Lab School for Collaborative Studies in June.

He had a passion for history and worked with friends and family during the pandemic to found The Water's Edge Museum in honor of his closest friend, the late Mrs. Frances Curtis (1920-2018). Seeing every bit of the royalty in her, Tilghman affectionately referred to Mrs. Curtis as "My Lady," and beyond Oxford, shared with her good times in New York City, Paris, and Antigua, where they made many lifelong friends. Anyone fortunate enough to witness the two interacting, sharing much in spite of the eighty-one year age difference, knows that they are now together in heaven.

Tilghman is survived by his parents, Philip Logan and Barbara Paca; his Uncle Bobby Paca; and caregivers Toliver Thomas and Annie Miller.

A service will be held on the grounds of The Church of the Holy Trinity, 502 South Morris Street in Oxford, MD, on Saturday, July 17, at 11:00 a.m. He will be laid to rest in the Oxford Cemetery among his forebears near the water's edge. Reception following will be at The Water's Edge Museum at 101 Mill Street, in Oxford.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in Tilghman's memory to The Waters Church Building Fund, P.O. Box #125, Oxford, MD 21654.

“ Throughout Tilghman’s life Philip and Barbara have been the most supportive and loving team of parents imaginable. They took Tilghman on diverse adventures: trekking through the Swiss Alps; swimming in the warm waters of Antiqua; lunching with Art Garfunkel at MOMA; attending Notre Dame at Christmas; sailing the Tred Avon; singing in the Choir; and playing trivia on Team Tilghman in Denton, to name but a few. Tilghman was given the best intellectual stimulation that NYC schools had to offer, plus he had tutors and therapists. The Paca-Logans approach offered just the right balance between seriousness and humor. For many years Tilghman competed with his father as to who better enjoyed the dinner table feasts prepared by Barbara. Uncle Bobby was always available for consultation on medical questions. Granny Nicole Logan was an exemplary loving grandmother. Throughout his life Tilghman exhibited perfect equanimity. Despite his disabilities he was always good-natured and easy to be with. I especially thank Philip for teaching me that the world needs to make room for persons with disabilities. Tilghman is now with the angels.

A beautiful tribute to a young man we did not have the fortune to know personally. What a wonderful and uplifting life.

“ I was so fortunate to watch Tilghman grow up, working with him and his family as his home-based PT. Lately, it gave me immense pleasure to follow his activities on IG. A beautiful boy, a beautiful young man. So much to be proud of as I think of his, and his family's, example of grace.

“ It was a joy to watch Tilghman when he sang with the choir at Waters. You could see and feel his immense happiness. Tilghman was certainly an inspiration to many of us. To see the affection and love shared between Tilghman and Mrs. Frances would be envy by many. Tilghman will be missed.

“ I had the privilege of supporting Tilghman in the classroom for many years, and during our many years participating together at the Sunday inclusive Art program at the Children’s Museum of the Arts. Til taught ME so much about being a better occupational therapist and human being. Til was always a joy to be with, had a great sense of humor and was kind to all. He had a smile that was contagious and shall be greatly missed by all he touched with his exuberance. RIP SWEET TIL ❤️
