“ I grew up in Wooster, Ohio with Phil. He graduated one year before me but we played on the same basketball team at Wooster High School. I am a Vietnam veteran. But before I went to Vietnam I was stationed in Germany. And believe it or not. I was walking down the street and here I saw a guy who looked like Phil and I looked on his arm uniform guy says Gump I said, oh my gosh Bill and he looked at me says hux. And we talked for about 20 minutes, but it can you believe it. Two guys from the same Hometown growing up and we see each other in Germany in the United States Army serving our country. My condolences go out to the family rest in peace fill your friend Tom Huxley.

“ All of us who grew up with Phil in Wooster, Ohio are no doubt remembering him with a big smile on his face. And despite our sadness, we have a smile on ours too. He was a wonderfully entertaining friend to a great many people and we will miss him telling us the thousands of jokes he memorized, and the wise cracks, wry observations, quick retorts and hilarious wit that he shared with everybody. As funny and smart as he was, he was also a very kind and gentle man. Our hearts go out to his family and friends. Will Logan

“ Carole and Jeff, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. What fun times we all had through baseball; Cooperstown and Phil and Larry putting that ‘note’ on my cabin door!! I will forever be grateful to you and Phil for taking Matt on vacations with you, him, Jeff and Chris were inseparable and always at your house! Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you!!
