PHYLLIS "PHEE-PHEE" HUNTEMAN CROCKER

CENTREVILLE, MD: Phyllis Hunteman Crocker of Centreville, MD, died Monday, August 22, 2005 at Memorial Hospital in Easton. She was 75.

Born on January 15, 1930 in Easton, MD, the daughter of the late Bertha Eberhard and Edward Hunteman. Mrs. Crocker graduated from Easton High School, class of 1948. She then worked in Easton as a bookkeeper. She met her husband to be, Robert F. Crocker, upon being stopped on two occasions for speeding in the Easton area where he was stationed as a state trooper. They were married on October 27, 1951 in Baltimore, MD and raised their family in Centreville, MD. She was very active in her children's lives through such activities as the Centreville Little League, water sports, Girl Scouts (leader) and the PTA.

Mrs. Crocker enjoyed listening to the Orioles games on the radio, working on her morning crossword puzzles, and will always be remembered by many for teaching them how to water ski. She took up snow skiing when she was 50 years old. Mrs. Crocker created many beautiful needlepoint heirlooms for her family. Mr. and Mrs. Crocker had been active members of the Talbot County Country Club and in their later years, enjoyed traveling all over the world. Mrs. Crocker was also a former member of the Junior Women's Club of Centreville.

In addition to her husband Robert F. Crocker, she is survived by her son, Michael S. Crocker and wife Julie of Easton, MD; a daughter, Deborah C. Deering and husband Mark of Baltimore, MD; a sister Beverly Gleason of Easton, MD; and six grandchildren, Taylor Kegan and Christopher Crocker of Easton, MD, Courtney Kerwin, Ashley Tanis, Colin Deering and Ryann Deering, all of Baltimore, MD.

Family and friends may visit on Wednesday, August 24, 2005 from 6-8pm at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Centreville, MD. Funeral services will be held on Thursday, August 25, 2005 at 11am at St. Peter's Catholic Church, Queenstown, MD. Interment will follow in St. Peter's Catholic Church Cemetery.

Contributions may be made to: Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601 or Hospice of Queen Anne's, Inc., 300 Del Rhodes Ave., Queenstown, MD 21658.
