“ I have been away for a few days and was very saddened to learn the passing of Miss Rachel when I returned. What a wonderful friend she was to me and will always be remembered. I have known Miss Rachel since I was a very little girl and we surely had many, many chats, laughs and tears when she and my father were both at Corsica Hills. She was a person that loved people and I am so thankful she was treated with such dignity and respect by the staff at Corsica Hills. Miss Rachel you are surely in heaven and and I know you were received with open arms by our Heavenly Father. I will miss you so much and will always remember your lovely smile and laughter. So glad you had a wonderful life while being at Corsica Hills. Love and God Bless, Lynda Palmatary, Centreville.

Ms Rachel was such a lovely lady!! I used to work at Corsica and sent to see her everyday or stopped in the hall to chat with her for awhile. She was such a blessing to know. I have been thinking of her a lot lately. My prayers go her family. She will surely be missed. May your memories of her help you through this difficult time. I know I will cherish my memories of Ms. Rachel... God Bless
