“ Ranny you are the best brother a sister could have. I think of all the fun we had. When I was little we use to play store and when it was my turn you wrote out to lunch on the black board. We use to lie on a blanket outside and picked out shapes of the clouds. At home we danced to music (Elton John, Rolling Stones, Queen) and others. I was probably 5 or 6 but I remember taking you to the airport to go back to the army. You were so handsome in your uniform. I held your hand and I was so proud of you. I had the best soldier brother in the world. I will miss your smile, your laugh, and your love. As our mom said I will see you again on the other side of the stars. I love you. Your sister Heidi

Uncle Ranny,

You were the most free spirited, independent individual I've ever met. I'll never forget seeing you roll around town in that station wagon, your infectious smile, and your mild mannered nature. I will always treasure our impromptu meetings at the The Amish Market, where we would chat for a few moments and then you would abruptly carry on with your day. You could always be found at McDonalds just enjoying the social experiences and making sure everybody was having their "best" day possible. Well now I hope you are finally at peace enjoying your "best" days everyday on the other side of the stars reunited with you're beloved family that went before you. You will be deeply missed today, tomorrow, and forever.
