

Randy Glen Haddaway Sr.

May 24, 2000

Randy Glen Haddaway, Sr., of Tilghman died on Wednesday May 24, 2000, at The St. Marys City Hospital, Leonardtown, MD, after suffering an apparent heart attack. He was 47.

Born in Easton, October 27, 1952, he was the son of Chester R. and Constance Cummings Haddaway of McDaniel. After graduating from St. Michaels High School in 1970, he worked as a commercial waterman, fishing, crabbing and tonging. He was captain of the Debra Marie II. His hobbies included golfing and showing his thoroughbred Hunter Horse " Inhibition". A life-long resident of Tilghman, he was a member of the Tilghman United Methodist Church and the Tilghman Volunteer Fire Company.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are his wife, the former Debra M. Hobbs, whom he married in Tilghman in September of 1978: a daughter Greta M. Haddaway of Tilghman: a son and daughter-in- law, Randy G., Jr. and Kimberly A. Haddaway of St. Michaels; and a sister, Cindy Janda of Tilghman. Another sister, Marilyn Dianne Haddaway, died in 1965. He is also survived by his long-time working associate, K. Edward Cummings, Jr., who was with him at the time of his death.

Funeral Services will be held on Saturday May 27th at 2 PM, at the Tilghman United Methodist Church, where friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be at Spring Hill Cemetery, Easton, MD.

Memorial donations may be made to Tilghman Vol. Fire Dept., Tilghman, MD 21671.
