A beautiful tribute to a beautiful life, over too soon. I did not know Randy, but one of the most beautiful people in my life did, and he was much loved by her, always there for her as she was for him. Their friendship was one few have, but Taylor, my much loved granddaughter, had that in Randy. Taylor will always have wonderful memories of Randy, so I know this beautiful young man will live on in her heart, and in the hearts of many, many more.

“ I know you may not know me but Randy worked for me at Reebok. The little while I knew Randy was a riot. He was an amazing young man that always made me smile and we affectionately referred to one another as "Boo Boo Kitty". When I heard about his passing I was deeply saddened. Know I and many others share your loss. To the mother I do not know the feeling of the loss of a child but I being a mother myself I could only begin to imagine. I pray that God comforts you in your time of need and give you the strength to go on. To the father I pray God keep you so that you may remain the rock your son know you are. To his sister I feel your pain love. You may feel helpless and hopeless in this hour but rest assured your brother loves you and he will always be there because you my dear have been given the best Angel God has to offer. “ Steve, Melody & Kayla, my thoughts & prayers are with you at this time. My heart is broken. I will always treasure the years I got to spend with Randy when he so young. It was because he called me Nanny that all my grandchildren call me that now. These latest years he's called me Aunt Wendy & even though I may not have been his blood grandmother or aunt, I loved him like I was. Thank-you Steve & Melody for sharing him with me.
