January 2, 1968 - August 12, 2025

(Dex) Raymond Dexter Martin III, 57, of Easton, MD passed away at home on August 12, 2025.

Dexter was born on January 2, 1968, to the late Raymond and Sandra Martin. After graduating from Saints Peter and Paul High school, Dexter entered the work force and at the time of his passing he was working as a truck driver with R.L. Ewing.

He enjoyed, classic cars and boating with friends on the weekends. Dexter was an avid firearms collector and enjoyed sharing that knowledge with others. He enjoyed going to the movies and watching fireworks with his friends. His favorite holidays were Christmas and Fourth of July.

Dexter's life was deeply intertwined with the lives of those he loved. Though preceded in death by his devoted parents, Raymond and Sandra Martin, he remained surrounded by a circle of family and friends whose affection never wavered. He is survived by his cousins—Chris Dixon, Richard Martin, and Brigitte Metcalf.

His friendships were equally enduring, a testament to his generous spirit and unwavering loyalty. Close friends such as Mike Larrimore, Casey Darling, Steve Vanover, and Richard Denny walked alongside Dexter through the

“ I have no words. I'm shocked and stunned. I have so many memories with this man. Were together for a brief time, but always friends. Loved his jokes and great advice. He was a marvelous cook, and took pride in everything he cooked. He will never be forgotten.

Brother Dex. Ohhh my... these words are so very difficult to find. 41 years ago you drove into my parent's business (I was 15) across the street from your father's business in that old 1968 Camaro. You always...and I mean always revved the engine so freaking high when you pulled in, I thought the pistons were gonna blow the heads straight off that poor 327 small block. That was your calling card. Then you would walk thru the door grinning ear to ear like you drove up in a 4.5 second alcohol blown dragster. This crazy guy I thought ... just shaking my head at your naivety.

I don't even know how to even begin to summarize the next 40 plus years with this man. One thing is for sure though. If you knew him... the real him... you had not only a friend but true brother that blood cannot even begin to define. He didn't even know it but he brought forth the unconditional love, devotion and trust, I only can only wish I had more of in myself.

Thank you Dex. Sincerely I thank you. Because its what you didn't say that was voiced the loudest thru your actions over the years. Thank you... For the years of Friendship. The Brotherhood.and the presence in in my life that I couldn't imagine without you in it.

Thank you for the years that have passed by us and are now the strongest memories. Honestly I don't even know if this will be legible... because these tears stream so heavily from my eyes as I try my best to post this.

Thank you for the years of memories of boating. In 2006...This guy once took a 5 gallon Gatorade water cooler and filled it with Mudslide. Most of you know he didn't really even drink. But he filled cup upon cup of every person, stranger or not, that walked up the back of his boat at Conquest Beach. Thank you for the memories of shooting and target practice. The bonfires. The Captain Morgan poses. The 5 star chef dinners you prepared.

I could go on and on and on. But really... This sudden loss has left an emptiness in our lives. A void that is no longer filled with conversations or texts or words or your voice saying "Hey... what'sup? "

Every last one of us is going to miss you.

The quirky you that we all loved so much. Watch over us all as your memories will carry on in our hearts and souls.
