

Raymond Charles Henning

July 13, 1927 - August 29, 2009

Raymond Charles Henning known as Capt. Ray of Grasonville, MD died Saturday August 29, 2009 at Memorial Hospital of Easton. He was 82.

Born July 13, 1927 in Janesville, Wisconsin to the late Lester and Theresa Henning of Wisconsin. Capt. Ray was happily married to Ginger for 28 years. He worked in security for the Department of Defense for 30 years then as a Captain of his charter boat for 28 years. He was an active member of the American Legion of Queenstown, MD.

Capt. Ray liked nothing better than to stand at the wheel of the Cindy Lou and when the reels started singing he would say "Get them rods". Ginger only liked to go out in the boat with him not to fish but to be with him, he was the love of her life.

Mr. Henning is survived by his wife Betty Jane Ginger Henning of Grasonville, MD; A daughter, Cindy Ziegler of Pasadena, MD; five stepchildren, Robert Kemp of Michigan, Lynn Canary of Lusby, MD, Jell Kemp of FL, Byron Kemp of Centreville, MD and Valerie Staines of FL; 12 grand-children and 9 great grand-children; a brother, Les Henning; a sister, Priscilla McDonnell; He was preceded in death by a brother Ken Henning.

Services will be private. Contributions may be made to the American Lung Association Executive Plaza 1, Suite 600, 11350 McCormick Road, Hunt Valley, MD 21031.
