

Rebha Patricia Reno

December 11, 1941 - March 26, 2025

Rebha Patricia Reno passed away on March 26th 2025 at her home. She was 83 years old.

Born on December 11, 1941, in Washington, D.C., Rebha grew up in Cheverly, MD, and later moved to Rolling Ridge – Seat Pleasant, MD.

She was the beloved daughter of the late Ray Alison Gregory and Gracie Louise O'Carroll-Arndt. She was preceded in death by her sister, Ramona Love Hunter, and her brother, Ray A. Gregory (Pam Gregory). She is survived by her sister, Alison Ray Littleford (Cecil Littleford).

Rebha graduated from Suitland High School in 1959 and later attended Prince George's Community College, where she earned a degree in dental hygiene.

On July 4, 1959, Rebha married the love of her life, George L. Reno Jr, at Saint Margaret's Church in Seat Pleasant, MD. Together, they shared 66 wonderful years of marriage. They began their life together in Hillside, MD, before settling in District Heights, MD, where they raised their three children. After retirement, they embraced a new chapter on the Eastern Shore, making their home in Grasonville, MD.

Rebha is survived by her loving husband George L. Reno Jr, children: Patricia Reba Reno, Cynthia Reno-Williams (Wendell Williams), and Anthony G. Reno

Sr. (Laura Reno). She is lovingly remembered by her grandchildren, Morgan Reno, Pierce Reno, Madison Williams, Kennedy Williams, and Harrison Williams. She was preceded in death by her grandsons, Kevin Keating and Anthony Reno, Jr.

She found great joy in gardening and watching the wildlife outside her back door, especially squirrels, cardinals, and butterflies. She also cherished days spent at the beach, collecting seashells and feeling the sand between her toes, particularly in Ocean City, MD, and Nags Head, NC.

Above all, Rebha's greatest pride and joy was her family. She adored being the devoted wife of George, a loving mother to her children, and a cherished grandmother. Her love and dedication to her family were the foundation of her life.

In lieu of flowers, and in honor of her late grandson, donations may be made to the family's foundation, Not My Child (<https://notmychildinc.org>)

“ Rehba was an incredibly loving and beautiful soul, and I feel privileged to have known her. The boundless love she had for her children and grandchildren was genuinely remarkable and something to aspire to. Her presence left a lasting impact on my life, and I will forever treasure the cherished memories we shared. Thank you, Rehba, for the love, warmth, and light you brought into our lives. You will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

“ I meet Mrs. Reno in District Heights at her hm with Cindy in 10th grade. She welcomed me into her hm and many family functions, she was always kind but strict about how clean her house must be kept. She loved Mr. Reno like newlyweds and her kids were her jewels. She was loved by anyone that meet her. RIP sweet lady. Kelli Carroll Scott

“ Anthony, Cindy, Patty & Reno family, I will forever remember Rebha for the love and care she had for her family, especially her grandkids. She always lit up when you saw her—the happiness, warmth, and love were so evident. She was truly genuine and always made everyone feel welcome. She will be deeply missed. With loving thoughts, Michele
