“ Reggie's Family

Our heart felt sympathy to you in the loss of your dear father, He was so special to us and to our "alley friends". We lived across from him for over 12 years and our times together were blessed. We loved Reggie and will miss him dearly. As we all travel a head without him, our journey will be full of memories and the wonderful times we had with him. May the Lord bless you and bring you peace during this trying time.

*Love,

“ When I was dating Wayne and he was away at VT, I used to stop by the Red Lane House on my way home from college classes. I would visit with Reggie and catch him up on "almost" everything Wayne was doing! He used to say that if it weren't for me telling him what was going on in Wayne's life at VT, he wouldn't know anything, lol. We always talked so much that he used to say that if he & I talked to a wall, it would talk back! Those times make me smile. Reggie was so easy to talk and laugh with. Even once I married Wayne, we would meet for lunch in DC whenever he had business in town. I always enjoyed those lunches. So many good times. Rest In Peach my favorite father-in-law!

To the Mutter family I offer my sincerest condolences. The thing that always impressed me about Reggie was how he treated people. He had a way of making all feel welcomed and included. Because he treated others respectfully, warmly and with hospitality it was easy to return the same to him. It did not matter your age or stage in life, Reggie saw others as important responsible individuals and so that is how i always perceived him. I often wondered if there was a prefix title that Reggie could not be accepted as.....Dr. Mutter, Professor Mutter, Rev Mutter, Senator Mutter, Coach Mutter....with his southern ease in conversation, his physical stature, wavy hair and deep voice it was easily conceivable that all titles were appropriate. The other admired quality I always saw in Reggie was his commitment to jump in and help. He spent time coaching, being an active member in the ELKS, was an election judge, countless hours donated to athletic booster groups, a loving and compassionate father, car pool dad, and back up newspaper boy (when his sons needed help) just to name a few. We need more men like Reggie in this world, fortunately for our family, my sister married Reggie's son, who has chosen to inherit his dad's qualities.....May the Lord envelope the Mutter family during this sad time and remind us of the way Reggie celebrated life, Amen.

Jim, you said so much on how I feel about our father. He is the strongest one of the greatest men I have ever known. As I read your words of him the tears began to flow yet again this time thinking how humble daddy was also. He would tell me I was bias about how I looked at him and you just proved I was not the only one to see it.
