

Rhonda Jean Harms

May 23, 1951 - April 1, 2017

Rhonda Jean Harms of Stevensville, MD, died Saturday, April 1, 2017, at Compass Regional Hospice in Centreville, MD. She was 65.

Born in Clay Center, NE, on May 23, 1951, she was the daughter of the late Raymond and Verna Hamilton Peterson.

Rhonda was the Director of the Maryland State Licensed Beverage Association, where her roots in Maryland politics and small business owners throughout the state grew deeply. She loved her little dogs, Cecie and Tess, sewing, and her five grandchildren, and spent her last days caring for each.

Rhonda is survived by her son, Jason Harms (Elizabeth) of Stevensville, MD; five grandchildren, Brittany, Corry, Devon, Nathan, and Alec Harms; great-grandson, Jaxon Brooks; and sister, Lona Dedrickson of Waverly, NE. She was predeceased by her husband, Allen Harms.

A burial and ceremony for her and Allen will take place at a later date in Clay Center, NE, where their son Bain is buried. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to The American Cancer Society.
