“ Becky, I am so very sorry for your loss. It is clear that you love and care for Ricky so very much, and obvious that he adored his big sister. I know that his passing has left an emptiness and ache in your heart. He was such a good, hard-working, intelligent, kind man, and I will miss him and his friendly smile, sparkly blue eyes, and fun stories. May God's love and that of your family and many friends comfort you and help you in your sorrow. Love and many, many hugs,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss Becky. There are no words that can bring comfort at this time. Ricky is no longer in suffering now. Miss him, love him and remember him fondly. Heaven gained an angel yesterday, and now he will forever watch over you. If there's anything we can do, just ask.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. The Bible also assures us: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible says: "it is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
