“ Dearest Patty , Family and kids.
I am still in a complete state of shock and somewhat thankful that Cheryl is gone as she wouldn't be able to contain herself.
One of the main reasons we bought in Cove Creek is that Richard was willing to be the home's caretaker. Your entire Family became our Family and it has now been almost 17 years.
My heart is now broken and I know that Rich is in a better place with all his tools fixing Heaven for G-D and all those that follow. May G-D bless you all during these times of mourning.
