

Richard L Ledwell

March 11, 1946 - April 21, 2021

Richard Louis Ledwell, of Denton passed away on April 21, 2021 at the age of 75 after a courageous battle with cancer. He was born in Pinellas County, FL March 11, 1946 to William Newell and Margaret Mary Browning Ledwell.

Rich was an over the road truck driver in Pennsylvania until his retirement. He then moved to the Eastern shore where he began, what was to be a little part time job, driving a school bus for Talbot County. He was best known for this second career that lasted over six years. Rich drove bus 216 on the St. Michaels to Tilghman route every day. In his spare time, he loved to grow a vegetable garden and was an excellent carpenter.

Rich is survived by his wife Patricia and her sons Michael R. Jordan Jr. and his wife Nicole of Queenstown, and Christopher J. Jordan Sr. and his wife Leanne of Cordova. He is additionally survived by nine grandchildren. Chastity Jordan of Michigan, Shelby Simpkins of Cordova, Alexis Jordan of Cordova, Nathan Simpkins of Cordova, Christopher Jordan Jr. of Cordova, Ryleigh Jordan of Queenstown, Britney Jordan of Cordova, Gage Jordan of Queenstown, and Kaeden Jordan of Queenstown. In Florida, he leaves sister and brother-in-law Barbara J. and George Burke. Rich also leaves behind his best friend and partner in crime, Gary Bramble and his wife Mary of Easton, and special friends Lynn Duncan, along with Alan Smith and his wife Nancy.

Visitation will be held at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, Maryland, on Wednesday, April 28, 2021, from 1-2PM with a service beginning at 2PM. Interment will immediately follow at Spring Hill Cemetery in Easton.
