“ Dearest Donna, Deb, Krista and Family
Rich was not only Family to us but a very dear Friend.
Our hearts are broken but I can see that smile and remember all the fun times we had together.
We now have an extra angel to watch over us, while he is resting in the arms of Our Father.
We will see you again Rich and you will never be forgotten.
With love and prayers
Tres

“ Donna, so sorry to hear about Rich. We had many good times together , from hunting deer in Northeast at Woods farm to body booting the bay with Rich and Charlie. I know this is a rough time for you and your family. Rich will be missed by everyone but he will be were the fish bite all day and the crabs come by the bushel basket. We are praying for his soul and you and your family.

“ Donna, I am so sorry to hear about Rich. We had some great times at KIYC. I'm sure he and Billy will share some great fishing tales in heaven. Hang in there. It's so hard to be without them. He'll always be in your heart, but believe me it does get easier. Hugs and prayers to you and your family.
