

Richard Baxter Phillips Jr.

July 24, 1961 - June 12, 2012

Richard Baxter Phillips, Jr., of Bronson, FL, died on June 12, 2012 at his mother's home in Chestertown, MD, after a courageous battle with cancer. He was 50.

R.B. was born on July 24, 1961, in Chestertown, MD. He was the son of Richard Baxter Phillips, Sr., and his wife, Lynne H. Phillips, of Millington, MD, and Jean Brown Gillespie and her husband Edward Gillespie of Chestertown, MD. He attended Kent School and West Nottingham Academy. R.B. served two years with the United States Air Force stateside and was honorably discharged.

He worked in Kent County and Queen Anne's County before moving to Florida. There, he worked in the construction industry, installing dry wall and insulation as well as working various carpentry jobs. He enjoyed fishing, boating, outdoor sports, and did beautiful wood carvings.

In addition to his parent, he is survived by a daughter, Ashelie Diane Phillips of Cummings, GA; a son, Richard B. Phillips, III, of Cummings, GA; two sisters; Mary Elizabeth Evans of Chestertown, MD, and Debbie Gazzerro of Warwick, MD; and four brothers, Todd Gillespie of Chestertown, MD, Steve Gillespie of Williamsburg, VA, Jim Gillespie of Chestertown, MD, and Ryan Phillips of Baltimore, MD.

Pending travel arrangements, a celebration of life will be held at a later date.
In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Chester River Homecare and Hospice, 100 Brown Street, Chestertown, MD 21620.

RB was a dear friend of mine even though I didn't get to see him very much, he was still well loved by all his old friends.
