“ Share a memory...where to start! Every time I saw you, it was me scooping the bucket full from the ditch and you grabbing all the jumping minnows off the road. We spent all of our time in that ditch growing up side by side at daycare. Hopping the grass pods in the marsh until one of us fell in or got trapped along the shoreline. Never a day passed where we weren't covered in mud. Floating the wagon as if it was a boat in the creek until it capsized. Always ready for an adventure! The amount of forts we set out to build in the woods. You were always the one sitting right next to me in the go-cart even when we rolled it. No matter the idea good or bad you were always ready! I remember the amount of laughs you, Cody and I shared during that all-nighter where we swapped truck front clips. We spent four hours on one bolt and ended the night with a good memory at Denny's. You taught me many things that I have and will carry with me throughout life. You will be forever missed by me and my family and always in our hearts.

We spent about an hour just updating one another on how much our lives had already changed since highschool! I hope and pray that you are at peace. Continue being the humble and sweet person that you've always been since we were in elementary school. ❤️*
