

R. Marcell Butler

June 10, 1934 - January 25, 2009

Richard Marcell Butler of Centreville, MD died at his home January 25, 2009. He was 74, born June 10, 1934 to the late Warren Butler and late Grace Demby of Grasonville, MD. Richard attended school in QAC. After leaving Kennard High School in 1953, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy where he continued his education. He served as an Aviation Boatswain's I/late 2nd Class on the Bon Homme' Richard aircraft carrier, which took him to such places as, Mexico, Hawaii, Japan, China and the Philippines.

In September 1957 he met Vera Louise Shelton and they were married on August 2, 1958. From that marriage they had 3 children. Richard was a loving and supportive husband and father. From studying the bible, Richard had developed a deep love for Jehovah and the brother's and sister's in the Chestertown congregation.

He worked as a waterman until 1965, and was later employed by General Foods in Dover, Delaware until he retired in 1995. However, he never lost his love for the water, and enjoyed many wonderful days of fishing with his brothers, Warren, Joe, Bobby (deceased) and his son's James (Jimmy) and Rodney. He enjoyed sports, especially the Ravens and the Orioles. Richard also loved his car and truck and doing crossword puzzles. He was a member of the Kennard Alumni Association.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Vera, two son's James (Mary) of Grasonville, Md; Rodney(Donna) of Trenton, NJ; three daughter's, Cheryl DeShields (Daniel) of Centreville, Md; Carol Robinson of Centreville, Md and Debbie Kellum of Prince Frederick, Md. Two brothers, Warren of Grasonville, Md and Joseph (Rosalee) of Burlington, NJ. One foster brother, Roy Williams (Mary Lee) of Ft. Washington, Md. Three grandson's, Marvin Robinson (Shalonda) of Ft. Washington, Md.; Jonathan DeShields of Centreville, Md and Tyshon Brisco of Prince Frederick, Md; Two granddaughter's Deayna Ewell of Atlanta Ga. and Unique Stokes of Prince Frederick, Md; A step granddaughter; a step grandson; three great grand daughters and one great grandson; 7 sisters-in-law and 4 brothers-in-law and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by a brother Robert of Grasonville, Md.

Tribute Wall

“ R. Marcell Butler

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ R. Marcell Butler

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ R. Marcell Butler

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ *Vera,
I am thinking of you each day and hope to speak to you again soon.
Love
Gay##imported-begin##Gay Gunther##imported-end##*

February 10, 2009 at 08:16 PM

“ The Board of Directors along with the Management and Employees of Queenstown Bank send their most sincere condolences to Cheryl DeShields and her Family members.##imported-begin##Human Resources - Queenstown Bank of Maryland##imported-end##

January 30, 2009 at 02:46 PM

“ My heart and the hearts of the staff and consumers of the Center For Life Enrichment go out to daughter Debbie Kellam and her family in the loss of her father. GOD carry you through this time and give you peace.##imported-begin##Karen H. Gardner##imported-end##

January 29, 2009 at 02:58 PM

“ Ms. Vera: A note to prayers and sympathy to you in the loss of your husband. May God grant you peace and love to face each day. The memories of him you will cherish forever in your hearts. Gene and Lynda Palmatary, 221 Hope Road, Centreville, Md.##imported-begin##Lynda H. Palmatary##imported-end##

January 27, 2009 at 06:48 PM