

Robert Lee Carroll

June 1, 1931 - September 25, 2018

Robert Lee Carroll of Chestertown, MD, died September 25, 2018, as declining health claimed him. He was 87.

Born in Welch, WV, in 1931, he left the coal fields for a military career in both the US Navy and the US Air Force, retiring as a senior sergeant with commended skills as an aircraft mechanic in 1972. He settled in Chestertown and became known around town as the “Kingstown Stud” and “Blind Bob.”

Bob enjoyed visiting around taverns and his favorite, the Chestertown Elks Lodge. He was an active gardener and tinkerer, who often greeted friends at his cottage “Dog Patch” along the Chester River, cheerfully doing what he could with his partial blindness.

Bob was also a proud member of the V.F.W., Frank M. Jarman American Legion Post, Chestertown Elks Lodge, and the Bay Country Moose Lodge.

A service will be held at a later date to be announced.

“ I am the widow of his first cousin, John M. Leighton of Buena Vista, VA. Passed on to me is the 1925 marriage license of his parents, John Richard Carroll and Laura Julia Leighton, who was my husband's aunt. Also, I have a death certificate for his father John Richard Carroll, age 80 in Beckley WVA in 1963. I would like to send these two documents to someone in the family. And my condolences on the death of Bobby, as my husband called him. Please hurry as age is catching up with me. God bless you!

“ I will always remember with pleasure the pool shooting late afternoons with Bob and Jerry Inglesby. We met for billiards at the Elks and also at the Bluebird. There was usually some friendly competition as Bob could see colors in motion. In fact, he probably won the most games among us three.
