“ We are so sorry for your loss, He always joked that he was our first "customer" @ the Chester Lodge Breakfast the last Saturday of every month. Missed seeing him the last few months, and now we why. Remember the good times and know he and the love of his life Pat are together again. I wonder who he's telling jokes to while cutting their hair.

To the family of Bob Edler: I have great memories of Bob as I know all of you do and you will keep them within your heart forever. He and Pat were two of my favorite people and to know how much they loved each other and to know that they are now together again forever must help during this very difficult time. They were a true example of family love. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. May God give you the strength you will need in the upcoming days. God bless you.
