“ To Robert's Family... Sandi and I have shared the best moments with Robert (and Gail) and Robert's family....Over the last 5 years...from the first day that i met Robert.. it was like i had known him all our life...sweet, funny, down to earth, southern man.... always smiling, inquisitive, always interested in someone else's life and family... made us feel at home and always welcomed....ALWAYS felt welcomed and included with his family and friends... We feel blessed to have known such a wonderful loving man...when Robert hugged you, you knew he was happy to be with you...and didn't want you to leave, but always asked when you were coming back!....We Love you Robert...and will miss you deeply..... when you get to heaven, tell my dad hi, and that i love him and miss him...he will be the dark tanned man at the bar with a beer in his hand...love you Robert...

My Uncle Robert was a special man to me. He helped my mother many times when she was left without a husband and two young children to raise. He always said he felt she was his second mom when he was growing up. He was the strong one in the family and everyone looked up to him. His sisters loved him so it hurts that he was the last of the family to pass away. He was a big teaser to us cousins and always tried to have something going on between us. I will miss you Uncle Robert.
