

Robert Craig "Bobby" Kirby

December 28, 1925 - June 15, 2015

Robert Craig "Bobby" Kirby of Easton, MD, died at Bayleigh Chase on June 15, 2015. He was 89.

Born on Martin Farm in Trappe, MD, on December 28, 1925, he was the son of the late Thomas Hughlett and Nellie Craig Amos Kirby.

After attending public school, he worked with his family on Kirby's Wharf Farm until 1948 when he was employed by the Maryland State Highway Administration – Easton Shop. Mr. Kirby retired as a motor equipment operator III in 1991.

A resident of Trappe for the majority of his life, he was a member and served on the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Trappe, a member of the Maryland Classified Employees Association, and a past member of the Trappe Volunteer Fire Company. He played baseball in the Tri County League and was an avid fan of the Baltimore Orioles.

Mr. Kirby is survived by his wife, the former Dorothy Virginia Cryer whom he married on January 4, 1947, in Trappe and a son, Dale C. Kirby and his wife, Suzanne, of Tucson, AZ.

He was predeceased by a sister, Anna K. Gleason, and a brother, Edward Kirby.

A funeral service will be held on Tuesday, June 23, 2015, at 11am, at Fellows Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, where friends may call one hour prior to service.

Burial will be at Spring Hill Cemetery, Easton.

In lieu of flowers, Bobby wanted memorial donations to be made to St. Paul's Episcopal Church Youth Programs, Trappe, MD 21673 or the Trappe Volunteer Fire Company, Trappe, MD 21673.
