“ *I knew Bob for many years when we discovered we were cousins when doing genealogy online. We shared many discoveries together and shared a passion for the hobby. I made a surprise visit one day to actually meet him in person while traveling with my family. It was wonderful to meet him and Elaine. It was a true honor to know him. My deepest condolences to his family. He is now in "God's country" - he knows what I mean and I'm sure he's smiling somewhere. Godspeed Leahy - say hello to the relatives. Cheers!

“ I remember Bob as a thoughtful, intelligent man. A fellow veteran, he was a an excellent craftsman and boat builder who valued precision and craftsmanship in fabrication and woodworking. A good man.
