“ 5 reasons why I love my Uncle Bobby - by Ann Lee Martin 1. I always thought he was such a handsome guy, kinda like a pee wee Burt Reynolds. 2. He had cool cars! Rumor has it that he couldn't drive for shit and wrecked them all, but that never slowed him down. 3. He was generous. He loaned my mom, Mary Kathryn, his car more than once; I recall being parked outside of Stevensville Acme store listening to a Rod Stewart 8-Track tape. I still adore Maggie May 50 years later. 4. I remember him as a funny guy. He would lite up a room when he arrived, always joking and teasing the kids. Family dinners at Mommom Bessie's house were not complete without him there. 5. Uncle Bobby loved his family fiercely. He was so proud of Donna and his children. He loved unconditionally and helped any chance he could. Along came his many grandchildren and I know his life was complete. He will live in my heart forever. Go rest high on that mountain Uncle Bobby, you're work on earth is done.
