“ So sorry to hear of Bob's death. My friendship with him goes way back...to his days as "Bubba." He was always ready to share a funny story and talk about what was going on in the world. The past several years have been difficult for him-- with his health. Bob kept a positive attitude. I hope he is at peace. Thoughts to his family. Jean

“ I miss Bob very much. We sat next to each other at Davita. We had many conversations and comments and shared many interesting stories. I found Bob a very amusing and thoughtful person. He became friends with my husband also. When we went to Florida he recommended a place to eat (Linger Lodge). We went there and enjoyed it very much, brought him back a tee shirt so he knew we were there. Tried to go say hello to his birds but didn't make it.

He is no longer in pain, he was in a lot towards the end. I hope he is at peace now.

My thoughts go to Bobs family.
