“Charlotte, our love and prayers are for you. I know you were the answer for him in your love and devotion for him. I will miss him too. He was so faithful in visiting with Daddy at the end of his life. Bobby and Daddy were alike in some ways because all they wanted was for someone to love them. I am glad that his and my relationship was better these past eight years. It has been a rough 6 months because my blood brother Robert passed away and now my step brother Robert six months later has passed away and they were both the same age.
