

Robert Seward

January 19, 2000

Robert "Allen" Seward of Easton, MD, formerly of Grasonville, MD, died at his home on Wednesday, January 19, 2000. He was 69.

Born February 19, 1930, in Grasonville, he was the son of Roland and Florence Elizabeth Seward Miller. In 1951, he married Shirley Adele Brobst. He served in the U.S. Army from 1951 until 1953 and then began working for his uncle in the plumbing business, obtaining his master plumber's license. In 1958, he worked for the Maryland Community Developers as Superintendent of Construction until 1984 when the company became K & P Builders, and he continued with them until his retirement in 1994. Following his retirement, he worked part time for Hog Neck Golf Course. In his spare time he loved playing golf and carving decoys.

He was a former member of the Kent Island Yacht Club, was also Past Commander of the Grasonville VFW, and a life member of the Easton VFW.

In addition to his wife and parents, Mr. Seward is survived by two sons, Larry Seward and his wife Shirley of Ridgely, and Gregory Seward and his wife, Janet of Chestertown; two grandchildren, Gavin Seward and Dana Seward, both of Chestertown. A son, Ronald Robert Seward, died in 1995.
