

Robert "Bob" Gannon

June 22, 1928 - September 1, 2010

Robert Paul "Bob" Gannon, Sr. died on September 1, 2010 at the William Hill Manor Health Care Center. He was 82 years old.

Born in Cordova on June 22, 1928, he was the son of the late James Leo and Ethel M. Rhodes Gannon. He graduated from Cordova High School in 1946. From 1955 until 1957, he worked on the farm belonging to his brother, Jimmy Gannon, in Cordova. He then began working on Franklin Gannon's farm outside of Church Hill. In August 1961, he became the caretaker at Willock's Farm near Church Hill. In 1965, he moved to his father's farm in Ingleside, where he later purchased the country store. After his divorce in 1968, he worked as a John Deere mechanic at Renshaw and Emory. Later, he became the production foreman of Price Cannery in Price's Station.

One of Bob's greatest pleasures in life was spending time with his grandson, D.J. He also enjoyed going to the track to watch harness racing, playing cards, watching wrestling and cheering for the Orioles. He is the only known male to have been inducted into the Red Hat Society.

The family would like to thank his special angel at William Hill Manor, Cindy Fox.

He is survived by his ex-wife, Phyllis R. Gannon; his sons: Robert P. Gannon,

Jr., John Gannon and Dennis Gannon; his grandson, Dennis James "D.J." Gannon, II; his sisters, Regina Russ and Mary Jo Jump; his brothers: Holton J. Gannon, Sr., Franklin Gannon, Edwin Gannon and Vincent Gannon; and his favorite nephew, Holton Joseph "Joe" Gannon, Jr. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his siblings: Anna Mae Rash, Eugene Gannon, Clara Herzog, James Leo Gannon, Jr., William Gannon and Marie Dudley.
