“ Bobby, I just heard about your son. I'm so sorry to hear about such a loss of a young boy. I know it's hard to lose someone you love, but as time goes by it gets better and you can know that he is with your Mom and Betty Jean. Keep your chin up. Your cousin,

“ Bobby,

*Please take this one day at a time.
Do not look back and grieve over the past, for it is gone. You need to look to the bright future that lies ahead. When the overcast of dark clouds have settled, you will see your rainbow and in your heart know that Robbie is in a better place.*

Live in the present, and make it so beautiful that it will be worth remembering.

I love you Bobby. I'm so sorry that your'e having to go thru this tragic event. We come from a long line of Donaldson's and all of us are very strong. Hang in there Brother. In time we will smile again, in time we will make more memories again and appreciate the good things in life that God has given to us.

*Love You Always,
Sister Jane##imported-begin##Mary Jane Donaldson##imported-

“ Bob -- I was so very sorry to hear about your Son Rob. Although I didn't know him very well, you and I have gotten pretty close over the years through our business association and I am always in disbelief when terrible things happen to such good, honest and hard working people. This is truly tragic and I am so very deeply sorry for your loss. Please know that mine and Dianne's prayers and thoughts are with you and your family during this terrible time.##imported-begin##Dan Garrett##imported-end##
